ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024 - Odd Semester

Annual Report

- In the academic year 2023-2024, subject registration of the students was done for all UG and PG programmes through NPRCET web portal (Examination Management System) maintained by COXCO. A total of 416 students were registered for I semester for all UG and I Semester for PG programmes.
- Continuous Internal Assessment Test (CIA) for all UG and PG programmes were scheduled as per academic calendar. CIA examinations were conducted and supervised by the internal invigilators. Marks Scored were entered in the NPRCET web portal.
- Practical examinations Lab exam Schedule was prepared and circulated among the departments. Practical examinations were conducted as per the schedule and through regular mode. All practical examinations were conducted as per the schedule and the marks were uploaded in the software on the same day. The marks were awarded by both the internal and the external examiners.
- The end semester theory examination schedule was prepared one month in advance and the question papers were collected from the external examiners. Each question paper was scrutinized by the external subject experts. Semester examinations were conducted through regular mode with approval of Anna University.
- Evaluation of the answer scripts Answer scripts were evaluated by the external examiners. Revaluation also carried out by the external member If the deviation was +/- 15%, third evaluation was done by subject experts and marks were uploaded in the software
- The Provisional results were declared on 20.03.2024 (1 year UG & 1 Year PG - MBA) after receiving the suggestions and approval from the Result Passing Board members, the results were published through the institutional website.
- Forty students applied for revaluation and ten students received grade changes.

ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024 - Even Semester

Annual Report

- In the academic year 2023-2024, subject registration of the students was done for all UG and PG programmes through NPRCET web portal (Examination Management System) maintained by COXCO. 401 students were registered for II semester for all UG and II Semester for PG programmes.
- Continuous Assessment Test (CIA) for all UG and PG programmes were scheduled as per academic calendar. CIA examinations were conducted and supervised by the internal invigilators through regular mode. The answer scripts were evaluated and audited by the internal examiners. Marks Scored were entered in the NPRCET web portal.
- The end semester theory examination schedule was prepared one month in advance and the question papers were collected from the external examiners. Each question paper was scrutinized by the external subject experts. Semester examinations were conducted through regular mode for all UG and PG students with approval of Anna University.
- Answer scripts were evaluated by the external examiners. Revaluation also carried out by the external member If the deviation was +/- 15%, third evaluation was done by subject experts and marks were uploaded in the software
- The Provisional results were declared on 23.08.2024 II Year of UG & PG. After receiving the suggestions and approval from the internal panel members, the results were published through the institutional website on the same day.
- Thirty-four students applied for revaluation, and the grievances of sixteen students were resolved, resulting in an improvement in their grades
