ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024

28.10.2024

To whom so ever it may concern

For the evaluation of End Semester examination answer papers of UG and PG students, Single evaluation system was followed for the first autonomous batch during the academic year of 2023-2024. Subsequently, after the results are announced, students having grievances were given an opportunity to apply for revaluation. This revaluation process was adopted, as practiced earlier by all the affiliated colleges of Anna University.

It was observed that out of 40 students who applied for revaluation, 10 students received grade changes during the odd semester and 4 students received grade changes out of 29 who applied during the even semester of the academic year 2023-2024.

ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024 - Odd Semester

Annual Report

- In the academic year 2023-2024, subject registration of the students was done for all UG and PG programmes through NPRCET web portal (Examination Management System) maintained by COXCO. A total of 416 students were registered for I semester for all UG and I Semester for PG programmes.
- Continuous Internal Assessment Test (CIA) for all UG and PG programmes were scheduled as per academic calendar. CIA examinations were conducted and supervised by the internal invigilators. Marks Scored were entered in the NPRCET web portal.
- Practical examinations Lab exam Schedule was prepared and circulated among the departments. Practical examinations were conducted as per the schedule and through regular mode. All practical examinations were conducted as per the schedule and the marks were uploaded in the software on the same day. The marks were awarded by both the internal and the external examiners.
- The end semester theory examination schedule was prepared one month in advance and the question papers were collected from the external examiners. Each question paper was scrutinized by the external subject experts. Semester examinations were conducted through regular mode with approval of Anna University.
- Evaluation of the answer scripts Answer scripts were evaluated by the external examiners. Revaluation also carried out by the external member If the deviation was +/- 15%, third evaluation was done by subject experts and marks were uploaded in the software
- The Provisional results were declared on 20.03.2024 (1 year UG & 1 Year PG - MBA) after receiving the suggestions and approval from the Result Passing Board members, the results were published through the institutional website.
- Forty students applied for revaluation and ten students received grade changes.
